

Furniture Removalists

Transport, Postal and Warehousing ANZSIC: 4610

Key Skills

Employers value job seekers who have completed these Units of Competency:

- TLID2018 Handle Furniture and Effects, and;
- TLID3048 Pack and Unpack Furniture and Effects are desired by employers.

There is a licencing component (i.e. Heavy Rigid (HR) licence) desired for workers to enter this industry.

20,388

individuals employed within the Furniture Removal Industry nationally in 2022.

1,915

workers are employed as Freight and Furniture Handers within Western Australia.

>$1.7BN

Industry revenue is forecast to increase at an annualised 1.5% over the five years through 2026-27. This expansion stems from a projected increase in spending on removalist services by the corporate market and rising commercial building occupancy rates.

7,300

businesses nationally comprising large, medium and smaller owner/operator companies.

Licencing Pathways

Source: LDSC Industry Profile, Furniture Removalists 2022

